The Internet Association President and CEO, Michael Beckerman

Michael Beckerman is the President and CEO of the Internet Association, a trade association representing leading global Internet companies including Airbnb, Amazon, AOL, Auction.com, Coinbase, eBay, Etsy, Expedia, Facebook, FanDuel, Gilt, Google, Groupon, IAC, Intuit, LinkedIn, Lyft, Monster Worldwide, Netflix, Pandora, Pinterest, Practice Fusion, Rackspace, reddit, Salesforce.com, Sidecar, Snapchat, SurveyMonkey, TripAdvisor, Twitter, Uber Technologies, Inc., Yelp, Yahoo!, and Zynga. At the Internet Association, Beckerman has worked to advance public policy solutions that strengthen and protect Internet freedom, foster innovation and economic growth, and empower users. Under his leadership, association membership has grown from 10 companies to over 30 of the top brands online.

Beckerman is regularly cited as an authority on Internet policy, and appears regularly on national radio and television networks to offer the Internet industry's perspective on topical policy issues. He was recognized in 2015 and 2013 by Washingtonian Magazine as one of DC's Tech Titans.

Prior to the Internet Association, Beckerman served 12 years as a top congressional staff member, serving as the Deputy Staff Director and chief policy advisor to the Chairman of the U.S. House Committee on Energy and Commerce, which oversees America's Internet policies. He graduated with honors from George Washington University.
